In 1834 he was the Democratic nominee for Sheriff of Kings County, and defeated Corporal James Tanner after a very bitter campaign. He retired from the office with a comfortable fortune, and after that did not appear prominently before the public.

About a year ago Mr. Farley's wife was stricken with paralysis, and he was so devoted in his attention to her that his own formerly rugged health broke down under the strain.

Her cries brought several neighbors to the spot, and their actions were so threatening that kay concluded to get out of that vicinity at once

A CASE LIKE PATTERSON'S.

Stolen Property Without Pay. Two typewriters in Police Commission er Welles's office in Brooklyn were this ning preparing a lengthy statement made yesterday by Charles M. Patterthat Detective-Sergt Zundt, of Brook-lyn, and two New York detectives had tried to make him pay 35 for a stolen diamond stud, which they recovered in a pawnbroker's.

Patterson drew checks for 361 and 10 10 ward, which he gave Zundt. He stopped payment on the former check. The two New York detectives are Lang and McManus. with his club would fail him, he finally fearing that would fail him, he finally in drew his revolver and kept the crowd at bay until the patrol wagon arrived.

St. Louis Highbinders Make Term for a Would-Be Murderer.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.—The powerful ST. LOUIS, Sept. 25.—The powerful Tong Society, whose members are commonly known as Highbinders, has decreed that the law of the State of Missouri shall not be enforced in the case of Fung Lou, who tried to murder Lee Jong. An agreement written in Chinese was drawn up. The compact specifies that Fung Lou shall pay a stipulated sum to Lee Jong for a number of years, and that Jong shallexorcise and permanently remove the devil he put in Fung Lou.

The crime which Fung Lou committed is a felony, by the code of the State, but the Tong Society would rather settle the matter itself, and it seems that the police are perfectly willing for the Society to do so.
